Call to Worship

One: God has called us, as individuals, to use what we have been given to transform our homes, neighborhoods, and workplaces.

Many: In worship, our hearts are filled with God's love for the people around us.

One: God has called us, as this church, to bring what we have been collectively given to transform this community.

Many: In worship, we build the bonds with each other that will support us in the days to come.

One: God has called us, as the people of God, to give what we have for the transformation of the world.

Many: In worship, we locate ourselves within the work of the universal church, all working to bring about God's Kingdom of mercy, grace, and redemption.

"Every Time I Feel the Spirit"

What's Pastor Chris been up to this week?

"I had the privilege of attending my first Missions, SPRC, and Church Council meetings this week (whew!), along with another introductory meeting with thirteen people (and several coffee dates!). I also began to plan out the rest of the ministry year with our staff/leadership and discovered a great nearby pizza place!"

Prayer Requests

- For Barbara Hammann, who is recovering from a fall in rehab and group home.
- For Sandy Church's brother-in-law, Joe, who is recovering from a fall and broken hip.
- For Bob and Leah Bergstrom's daughter, Heather Mitchell, who is going to have hip replacement surgery.
- For Donna May.
- For Louise Montague, who is experiencing complications after back surgery.

Reminders

- The sermon series over the course of July will be a study in the book of Nehemiah. Please feel free to pick up a copy of the illuminated scripture journal and be sure to grab or download the discussion and reading guide (which can be found on the home page of the website!).
- The month of July is NSUMC Nametag Month! Wearing your NSUMC nametag is a great way for our new pastor to put names to faces (and to help the congregation get to know each other better)! The Membership Committee will have paper ones available on Sundays as well.
